

Back to the Future

November 30th, 2011 | Published in Inside Line

The January issue of Bowlers Journal International will be like none other in the 98-year history of the magazine. And this is one of the eight compelling stories that will make that so. It's an amazing tale of how bowling got inside one man, would not let go, and helped define his life. Don't miss the January issue of BJI. If you're not presently a subscriber, click here to subscribe now.

Comments are closed. © 2011 Bowlers Journal International